Greetings Companion Knights:

As I write this; my last message to you as Governor of the College I can finally say that our long lost Spring is finally starting to appear. Enjoy a couple of days of warmth before going back to the cooler Temperatures. Enjoy it while it lasts.

The past year has been a trying one for me on a personal level but I have had many of you come to lend your personal support.

It has been a great honour to have served Athelstan College as your Governor and will be something that I will always remember. Our next meeting will be the Installation of the next slate of officers. They need your support. You can help by simply coming out or, by taking a part in the drama cast. We can always use the help

Our College will only survive with the initiation of new candidates. We are lacking in proposals for candidates and I would encourage everyone to look within your Preceptories and Councils for suitable candidates for membership. This is an elite body and we are seeking out those individuals who will be an asset to the College. We also continue to look for members to assist in the drama portion and, if you would like to assist or be a backup to a cast position please let our Director know of your desire.

This will be my last message to you and I would like to take this opportunity to wish everyone and their family the very best for the summer vacation period.

Finally, to those Companion Knights who are ill or in distress, may the S.A.O.T.U, watch over you and have you in his keeping.

*. Fraternally,
Brett D. Kahler, Governor.*
